

Our guest speaker this week, Oct 16, 2016, was Stephen Crotts.

Stephen's Berean's class lesson today was entitled: "The Taste of Joy" and is available here as a podcast. (Stephen expands on this and related subjects in his pamphlet, Character, which is available on his website under Products.)

Stephen is the Director of the Carolina Study Center, a campus oriented teaching ministry that comes alongside other ministries to help preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ on college campuses by engaging students with seminars, retreats, debates, and one on one conversations.

- The CSC website is located at <http://carolinastudycenter.com/>. There you will find selected sermons and associated materials for your study and reflection.

The screenshot shows the top portion of the Carolina Study Center website. It features a header with a logo on the left, a central crest, and a background image of a library aisle. Below the header is a dark red navigation menu with links: Home, Services & Offerings, How You Can Help, Upcoming Events, Why I Go to the Campus, Sermons, Products, and Donate. Below the menu is a main content area with a text block on the left and three image-based buttons on the right labeled 'SERMONS', 'THE GREEN LETTER', and 'SUPPORT THE MINISTRY'.
