

Our guest speaker this week, July 16, 2017, was Stephen Crotts.

- Stephen is the Director of the Carolina Study Center, a campus oriented teaching ministry that comes alongside other ministries to help preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ on college campuses.
- The CSC website is located at <http://carolinastudycenter.com/>.

In today's Berean's class, Stephen shared some of his experiences and reflections on his recent trip to China. Stephen traveled with a team breaking ground for an annual teaching tour among universities there.

About This Unique Pastor

Stephen M. Crotts is a Christian preacher, teacher, and author from North Carolina. He was educated at Furman University, the University of London, Emory University, and the L'Abri Fellowship. As an ordained pastor, Stephen has traveled widely in the United States, Europe, Scandinavia, Asia, and Israel. Devoting full time to his calling, Stephen is now ministering to tomorrow's world leaders on campuses of colleges and universities in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia, through Carolina Study Center. Stephen and his wife, Kathryn, live in Hillsboro, North Carolina, and he also keeps his pastor's office for CSC in Chapel Hill, which is central to most of the campuses that he serves. Most of his messages available on this site were prepared and presented during his pastorates with Presbyterian Churches in North Carolina and Virginia.
